In 1978, Richard Sideman and David Bancroft, colleagues in the San Francisco U.S. Attorneys Office, co-founded a firm specializing in federal tax controversies and white collar criminal defense. Today, Sideman & Bancroft LLP offers comprehensive services in those areas, as well as tax planning, civil litigation, family law and business and real estate transactions.

Individuals, families, partnerships and companies of all sizes receive personal attention, cost-effective representation, responsive communication and superior service from the firm's 25 attorneys, including 19 partners, of whom four are former federal prosecutors. Sideman & Bancroft LLP maintains an unusually high ratio of partners to associates.
